APARTHEID

White South Africans are in control (Minority Rule)

System of racial segregation (1948-1993)

- the government segregated education, medical care, beaches and other public services
- provided black people with services inferior to those of white people
- Illegal to marry or have relations with persons of different races
- Interracial contact in sport was frowned upon

4 distinct racial groups: white, black, coloured, and Indian black South Africans are required to carry passes when they traveled

Forced removal: Johannesburg
